

PharmEng Company Profile

PharmEng International Inc., (trading symbol TSXV: PII), is a full service consulting firm that serves the pharmaceutical, medical devices and biotechnology industries in North America and internationally. The company provides industry recognized services on consulting from drug discovery to commercialization, contract manufacturing and testing, as well as cGMP training through the PharmEng Learning Institute.

PharmEng Innovations (a division of PharmEng International Inc.) provides comprehensive pharmaceutical research & development services including formulation and analytical development, clinical material manufacturing and scale-up services for the global markets.

Research Assistant

PRINCIPAL DUTIES:

- Support all clients' pharmaceutical research and development project activities.
- Perform testing in accordance to analytical methods and protocols.
- Participate in internal/external audits.
- To document all experimental data in accordance with PharmEng Innovations SOPs.
- To assist in method development and validation as directed by senior scientist.
- To assist in trouble shooting and investigations as required by senior scientist.

SKILLS/EXPERIENCE REQUIRED:

- B.Sc., M.Sc. with 2+ years of pharmaceutical analysis experience, including method development and validation
- Good understanding of basic chemistry, chromatography (e.g. HPLC, GC) and spectroscopic technologies (e.g. UV, IR)
- Good problem solving skills and logical approach to solving a scientific problem
- Exceptional cGMP, GCP, GLP and FDA compliance knowledge.
- Superior interpersonal and communication skills (both oral and written), teamwork ability and organizational skills.

Please forward your resume in confidence, to:

PharmEng Innovations
Bldg 190 Albany, Suite 216
York University, 4700 Keele Street
Toronto, ON
Canada M3J 1P3
FAX: (416)650-8119
info@PEinnovations.ca

ONLY CANDIDATES SELECTED FOR INTERVIEW WILL BE CONTACTED